

national institute of culture and history

Press Release: Meeting to Select History Association Executive For Immediate Release

The National Institute of Culture and History (NICH) through its Institute for Social and Cultural Research (ISCR) is pleased to announce the success of the first planning session for the establishment of a Belize National History Association was held on the 17th December, 2013. This success was largely due to the attendance and dialogue generated by over forty persons.

The next session will take place at the George Price Center in Belmopan on Saturday 25 January, 2014. Registration will begin at 9:00 a.m. and the official meeting will commence at 10:00 a.m. The meeting will be held for the nomination and election of the Association's Executive Board. The annual registration fee will be $20.00 to be paid before the start of the meeting.

All previous attendees and other interested persons are encouraged to attend this important session.

If you are interested in participating in this exciting initiative please contact the Institute for Social and Cultural Research at 822-3307 or by e-mail at iscr@nichbelize.org to confirm your attendance.

We look forward to seeing you there.

January, 14, 2014